

Debol Roy, Chief Environment Officer, GOWB

Professionally, Shri Debol Roy is a member of Indian Forest Service of 1991 batch.

He has served in various capacities in the field of Natural Resource Management, Watershed Management, Pollution Control, Biodiversity Management, Coastal Zone Management etc.

Presently posted as Chief Environment Officer of the Government of West Bengal. Shri Roy also holds the charge of Member Secretary, West Bengal Biodiversity Board as well as Member secretary, State Environmental Impact Assessment Authority.

His current interests are in Climate Change, Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services.